CHAPLIN SENIOR CENTER

NOTES FROM THE KITCHEN:

Autumn 2017

Every month the Chaplin Senior Center cooking staff sits with Roxanne, the Center's director... though, truth-is, we are usually standing around the prep table with coffee or tea...to plan the next month's menu. It's a rather fun task trying to take advantage of what's seasonal, or economical, or popular, or growing in the garden, or maybe just requested by a member of the Senior Center. Recently though, a young volunteer—very young...actually still in high school—was talking with the staff and mentioned how much her family enjoyed something called Camper's Stew when they were camping. By the end of the conversation we decided that Camper's Stew would be a fun thing to put on the Center's menu and we did...our Labor Day week lunch menu includes Camper's Stew and corn-on-the-cob. That then is another way menus come together. They just sort of 'pop-up.' Of course it helps that the members of the Center are an adventurous bunch; always willing to try new things and always honest enough to let you know when things work—and when they don't.

Although I don't have an absolutely favorite season, Fall/Autumn is one of my top four... hmmm! The air seems fresher and cleaner, though it is usually a bit chilly-er, chillier(?)—that's an odd looking word. Where I grew up in northern Indiana, the leaves changed color, but nothing like here in Connecticut, and I bet Vermonters say the same thing about us. But as autumn sets in around us, wherever we live, and the roadside stands abound with pumpkins and apples and cider and such, and ham-and-bean supper signs pop-up here and there, kitchens take a turn away from salad plates and grilled and barbecued meals. Now it's time for pot roasts and baked squash and cobblers and things that warm us from the inside out while the season tries to chill us from the outside in. My step grandmother used to tell us kids, and we were a very large family, that cleaning your plate would keep the goblins away. Most everyone at the Chaplin Senior Center cleans their plate. It must work, I have yet to see a goblin.

As we head into the holiday season, give us a call and check out our menu. You might find something you'll like and you can dine goblin-free.

CHAPLIN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

The Chaplin Elementary School community is pulling together to beautify the grounds and building at the school this summer. On August 7th a mighty group of committed individuals braved the threat of bad weather to work on cleaning up the pre-K gardens and the Water Garden. The work will continue into the school year and will include work on the greenhouse and indoor painting.

STUDENTS, TEACHERS AND PARENTS KEEP CHAPLIN LEGACY ALIVE

Donna Dufresne

*As I look down below me, this is what I see Nestled in the valley, cradled by the trees
A tiny school but mighty, a forest and a stream
Where teachers and their students reach for dreams*

So begins the school song at Chaplin Elementary School, which was written from the perspective of the school mascot, a soaring eagle. The song was written in 2012 by Donna Dufresne and students in the TAG enrichment program. The song was one of the many initiatives developed as part of our PBIS program. Back then Teachers and staff were engaged in unifying teachers, students and families in an effort to cultivate a positive school culture. School culture was not the only thing being cultivated at Chaplin Elementary School. If you soared like an eagle above the school in March or April, you would notice the beautiful building and fine landscaping. You would see children playing on the soccer field and swing sets. You might be tempted to land on one of the many architectural cupolas that were so stylish in 1993 when the school was built. But most notably, you would notice something rather unusual for an elementary school – a 40-foot long greenhouse, thriving with green plants cultivated by students.

A LITTLE HISTORY

The CES Greenhouse was built shortly after the school opened thanks to the vision of retired teacher, Ron Patrylak who had been using a small portable greenhouse to teach science. When Principal Bob Rifenburg asked if Patrylak was interested in using a surplus greenhouse from DOT, Patrylak jumped at the chance.

The school community rallied around the cause. Parent volunteers and businesses donated time and materials to get the greenhouse up and running. The Garrisons donated gravel and dug the trench to the pump for the water line; Randy Godaire did all the electrical work for free, and Jeff Woodward (Woodward's Greenhouses), loaned his expertise to help construct the greenhouse and make it operational.

The longevity of the greenhouse is proof that when parents, teachers and administrators rally around positive initiatives it brings out the best in everyone, especially the children.

GROWING A LEGACY

The CES Greenhouse continues as an after school club. Students plant and nurture our heirloom tomatoes, peppers, herbs and vegetables for the annual plant sale.

The club also grows food for the school cafeteria in the Seed to Table program. They grow a variety of lettuce in gutters, and weekly micro greens which are used in salads and sandwiches.

Thanks to Chaplin C.R.E.W., the greenhouse received grant money to help facilitate the seed to table and nutrition programs this year. We were able to build a rack to hold the gutters for the lettuce, and raised beds which will be built for the kitchen gardens and a future food pantry service project by the student leadership group. We also were able to bring "Ag in the Classroom" to grades 1 – 3, and have started a mobile book cart for books about agriculture, environment, composting, Greenhouse Club Members harvest micro greens for the cafeteria every week.

Parents are still having a positive influence. With the help of parent volunteers, the greenhouse has had a major facelift this year. In October, we replaced the worn plastic covering on the greenhouse, thanks to another grant from C.R.E.W. Parents continue to help out with the plant sale and the gardens. We would like to recognize the following parent volunteers: Kellie Monroe, Diane Muskett, and Carrie Tabor who spent countless hours helping us transplant, and organize the greenhouse for the plant sale. Parent volunteers help to replace the plastic on the greenhouse in November.

BUILDING COMMUNITY

On May 12th, the Greenhouse and student leadership clubs sponsored an Open House. Students presented mini workshops about school composting, the Seed to Table Program and future kitchen gardens. Ms. Baker ran a garden craft station where visitors could make catnip toys, lavender sachets, and taste our Greenhouse Vinaigrette. Mrs. Dufresne provided live music from her children's album, Speaker for the Earth. Students served delicious snacks featuring some of the produce they will grow in the kitchen gardens. It was a wonderful community event, celebrating student projects and the legacy of the Chaplin Elementary School Greenhouse – the jewel in our crown.

PACK 93 CUB SCOUTING NEWS

During the first weekend of June, the Cub Scouts held their annual family camping event at the Pachaug Forest Youth Camping Site in Voluntown. The boys enjoyed s'mores, field games, and a traditional campfire program of songs, jokes, and skits. Our excursions included a hike for stream exploration, where we found a crayfish, and a trail hike of the scenic Mount Misery providing views well into Rhode Island. During this weekend, we retired in the fire 37 tattered flags that we had collected and held our "crossover" of Scouts to the next grade level rank. Several awards were given during the Pack meeting ceremony. Earning the rank of Wolf were 2nd graders Brett Mayer, Ethan Bray, and Ryan Rondeau. Earning the rank of Bear were 3rd graders Ayden Rondash, Michael Praytor, Victor Bojarski, Henry Fontaine, and Lannie Beauregard. Victor and Lannie also earned the special "Outdoor Activity Award" for exceptional participation in outdoor hikes and camping, including summer camp. We ended the weekend with a campfire interfaith worship service on Sunday morning.

For some summer fun, our Pack families attended a CT Tigers baseball game on 7/22 and enjoyed a pre-game Scout parade around the field, a post-game movie on the big-screen, and camping in the outfield overnight.

This July and August, 7 eager Cub Scouts from Hampton, Scotland, and Chaplin attended day or resident Scout Camp at the J.N. Webster Reservation in Ashford. The boys and their leaders joined hundreds of other Scouts and enjoyed the wealth of activities offered including swimming, boating, archery, climbing, target shooting, and Scout skills such as fire building/safety and first aid. The boys hiked, went fishing, sang, played board games, enjoyed meals together, explored nature, participated in the "Buck-skin Games" and played lots and lots of "ga ga ball"! Our Pack was very proud that a neckerchief for the distinguished "Honor Camper" award was bestowed upon Pack 93's Om Brown.

The Scouts would like to thank the community for their support of their fundraisers through the year that make such wonderful experiences possible. They are currently in the midst of their fall fundraising effort – popcorn sales! Please be on the lookout for your neighbor Scout and support our Pack for all the excellent activities we offer.

Seventy percent of the money raised remains with LOCAL scouting. We thank you for your support.

Joining Night for the Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts is Wednesday, September 20th 6:30 PM - 7:30 PM at the Parish Hill High School cafeteria. All boys in Kindergarten through 12th grades are welcome to enroll. Come see the fun things that Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts can do!

From the Desk of Resident Trooper Paul Black

I just wanted to remind everyone about some of the scams that are still going around. The IRS one is still being used. Recently a resident received a call from someone claiming to be from the IRS. They were told that they had to make an immediate payment or the police were going to be sent to the house to arrest them. The resident also received a second call claiming to be someone from the Police Department requesting that an immediate payment be made over the phone. I mention this for a couple of reasons. The numbers that showed up on the resident's caller ID during the 2 calls were legitimate numbers. One being an actual IRS number and the other being my office number. The scammers are able to input what numbers show up on caller id. The IRS will never call you requesting an immediate payment over the phone and no one from the State Police or any other Police Department is going to call demanding a payment over the phone. If you are not 100% sure of who are talking to do not provide any information to them. Better yet do not even answer the phone.

Other scams over the phone claim to be that a relative has been arrested and needs bond money or another one asking if you are interested in selling your house or if you know someone else in the neighborhood that is, promising you a $2,000 finder's fee. Email ones looking for a secret shopper or providing employment for reshipping packages that are shipped to your residence. I mention these because these calls and "employment" opportunities have been received by Chaplin residents. There are too many others to mention them all. If something doesn't sound right or sounds too good to be true it probably is. The best advice is not to even engage with these people.

As always I can be reached at 860-455-2069 with any type of questions or concerns.

CHAPLIN PLANNING AND ZONING COMMISSION

The Chaplin Planning & Zoning Commission is currently working to revise the existing Zoning Regulations. The regulations have not been updated since late 2009 and there are many sections of the current regulations which are outdated. In addition, the Planning and Zoning commission has received numerous inquiries about the regulations, mostly from residents who want to do the right thing to comply with regulations, but for one reason or another they are unable too. Inquiries and other written complaints regarding the regulations have also been received by the First Selectman (both Past & Present), as well as the previous Zoning Agent and past commission members. In response to all of these comments, the Planning & Zoning Commission has begun the regulation revision process.

The Chaplin Planning & Zoning Commission encourages any resident with concerns regarding the current Chaplin Zoning Regulations to please submit any of your concerns to the Planning & Zoning Commission. You can do so by contacting the Zoning Enforcement Officer at (860) 455-0073, or by email at: zoningofficer@chaplinct.org The Zoning Officer is also available to meet with the public on Tuesday Evenings, from 5pm to 7pm at the Chaplin Town Hall, 495 Phoenixville Rd, Chaplin, CT 06235. Residents are also encouraged to attend the Planning & Zoning Commission meetings, which are held on the 2nd Thursday of each month at 7pm at the Town Hall. Don't Delay!! If you indeed do have concerns and comments about the current zoning regulations, now is the time to act, as the commission is currently in the process of revising certain sections of the regulations.

PROPERTY BOUNDARIES

As the Town's Zoning Officer, one of the most frequent questions that I get is "where can I get a map of my property". The simple answer to that question is to go on to the Town's on-line mapping program, located at: <http://www.mainstreetmaps.com/CT/chaplin/public.asp> This is the town's tax assessor's maps, displayed in an interactive mapping program. The property lines displayed on this program are all generated from the deeds, filed in the land records for every property in town.

The property deeds are located in the land records at the Chaplin Town Hall, in the Town Clerks Vault. The deed for each property, contains a "Schedule A", which a legal description of the property. This is a very specific description in terms of meets and bounds and distances of the limits of your property. In most cases this legal description is also accompanied by a map. However, there is not always a map and the legal description may be the only way to precisely determine the limits of your property.

I recommend, if a survey does not already exist on the property, that residents get a printout of their property off the Town's on-line mapping system and verify the metes and bounds shown on the printout match the legal description located in their deed. All of the property deeds in Chaplin public documents and can be viewed at any time the Town Hall is open for business. The Town Clerk's office has a search program which will enable you to easily locate the deeds on your property filed in the vault.

Residents can always meet with staff to assist them in located their deeds and other documents filed on the land records.
